

BUILDING HEIGHT

Commercial

The vertical distance measured from the street or sidewalk elevation to the point of the roof, not including vents, pipes, chimneys or other such appurtenances. If the street frontage is sloped, an average of the highest and lowest grade along the business frontage shall be calculated to determine building height.

